Corporate PR (Main Products, etc.)	&lt; involved in the production of the one-of-a-kind altar &gt;                      We can ask the deceased about their hobbies and preferences, and try to create a one-of-a-kind altar that suits them. I was able to be involved in the last memories with my family, and my family said, "It's a really good flower, and I think my grandfather will be happy too." Sometimes they cry and rejoice.                      Even if you have never touched &lt; flowers, you can do it! Solid guidance! &gt;                      Even if you create the same altar order, the color combination and balance are different depending on the maker, so it is a creative job that allows you to make use of your individuality and skills. Even if you have never touched flowers, you can do it! We will train from simple places such as flower preparation and landing. Let's gradually increase what we can do. Members who used to work part-time as funeral staff are also active! Some staff members have gone from part-time jobs to employees!
